

Dear Sir

I received your letter of the 10th.

and in reply to inform you that I have no objection to your using the name of the Association in your

publications and in your

lectures and in your writing and in your

speeches and in your

conduct and in your life and in your

death and in your

burial and in your

memory and in your name and in your reputation and in your honor and in your

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "J. J. J. J. J."

Handwritten mark or signature, possibly "J. J. J. J. J."

Handwritten text in cursive script, likely Japanese, spanning multiple lines. The text is written in a fluid, connected style, characteristic of cursive calligraphy. It appears to be a single continuous piece of text, possibly a letter or a short story, written on a piece of paper that has been folded or torn.